PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 118th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 170

WASHINGTON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 2024

No. 31

House of Representatives

The House met at 10 a.m. and was called to order by the Speaker pro tempore (Mr. ROUZER).

DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following communication from the Speaker:

WASHINGTON, DC,
February 16, 2024.

I hereby appoint the Honorable DAVID ROUZER to act as Speaker pro tempore on this day.

MIKE JOHNSON,
Speaker of the House of Representatives.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

Merciful God, we pause in this moment to look inwardly, evaluating both who we are and whose we are. In this time of self-reflection, we pray that we do not see ourselves as better than we really are. Rather, as we reflect on our attitudes and actions and the estimation we have of our own importance, may we do so with humility and wise judgment, free of exaggeration or delusion.

You, O Lord, have made us and we are Yours. We are Your people, the sheep of Your pasture. As we consider this relationship to You, help us first to see the grace You have given us and mercy You have shown us. As far as our faith allows, help us to discover the gifts You have apportioned to us and live into the purpose You have assigned to us.

This and every day, may we commit ourselves to this meditation and self-examination, that we would grow stronger in spirit and more aware of Your steadfast love in our lives.

We pray that we glorify You. In the strength of Your most holy name we pray.

Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(z) of House Resolution 5, the Journal of the last day's proceedings is approved.

PLEDGE OF ALLEGIANCE

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The Chair will lead the House in the Pledge of Allegiance.

The SPEAKER pro tempore led the Pledge of Allegiance as follows:

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands, one nation under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

ADJOURNMENT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Pursuant to section 3(z) of House Resolution 5, the House stands adjourned until 1 p.m. on Tuesday, February 20, 2024.

Thereupon (at 10 o'clock and 2 minutes a.m.), under its previous order, the House adjourned until Tuesday, February 20, 2024, at 1 p.m.

EXTENSIONS OF REMARKS

RECOGNIZING THE 50TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE STONE PONY

HON. FRANK PALLONE, JR.

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 16, 2024

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Speaker, it is my honor and privilege to congratulate The Stone Pony on its 50th anniversary as its staff, patrons, and the community gather to celebrate "Stone Pony Day" as proclaimed by the City of Asbury Park. The Stone Pony is a landmark music venue in Asbury Park, New Jersey and this milestone and its historical significance are truly deserving of this body's recognition.

Opened on February 8, 1974 by John P. "Jack" Roig and Robert "Butch" Pielka, The Stone Pony has become synonymous with Asbury Park. Its storied past has seen triumphs and tribulations, but throughout its 50 years, The Stone Pony's connection to rock and roll history has cemented its status and success as preeminent music venue. Its stage has been graced by a venerable list of talent, including New Jersey native Bruce Springsteen, Ronnie Spector, the Ramones, Joan Jett, Peter Dinklage, Green Day, Kenny Chesney, and The Black Crowes. Many artists launched their careers at the Pony, including New Jersey rock band The Smithereens, who credit The Stone Pony for their start. One of the venue's first house bands, Southside Johnny and the Asbury Jukes, helped buoy the venue's following and still play there today.

The venue is a mainstay of Asbury Park, and its history is woven into that of the city. The Stone Pony's commitment to promoting local and national musical acts has contributed to the thriving cultural landscape of the city. In addition, it has supported local charities and philanthropic efforts throughout its history, hosting benefit concerts for hunger initiatives, local youth programs, Parkinson's disease research, and music education, among others.

Mr. Speaker, once again, it is with pride that I recognize the remarkable history and contributions of The Stone Pony and congratulate it on its 50th anniversary. The Stone Pony continues to bring local talent and renowned musical acts to residents and visitors, drawing crowds from across New Jersey and beyond. Its impact on the community and the music scene is undeniable, and its legacy has echoed throughout New Jersey and the country for five decades.

NATIONAL ENTREPRENEURSHIP WEEK

HON. GLENN IVEY

OF MARYLAND

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 16, 2024

Mr. IVEY. Mr. Speaker, as we recognize National Entrepreneurship Week and Black History Month, I rise today to highlight the accomplishments and challenges of America's Black-owned small businesses.

Black business ownership is growing at the fastest pace in 30 years with the share of Black households owning a business doubling between 2019 and 2022. However, Black-owned small businesses still face distinct challenges, particularly as it relates to accessing capital, securing contracts, and navigating systemic biases within financial institutions and markets. Limited access to funding restricts the ability to scale and compete on an equal footing with their counterparts, hindering their potential for long-term success and growth.

Due to limited credit access, higher shares of Black employer businesses are forced to turn to alternative forms of financing. According to the Alliance for Entrepreneurial Equity, 49 percent of firms who pursue financing at an online lender do so because they were denied by other financial institutions.

One of my constituents who has faced these types of challenges is Tiffany Kelly, the owner and founder of House of Ketubah Bridal in Mount Rainier, Maryland. Tiffany told me that her business has been overlooked and excluded from financing opportunities. But she hasn't abandoned hope. Tiffany and her team continue to explore alternative avenues and innovative solutions to ensure that they can continue to serve their customers and the community.

I urge my colleagues to work together to solve the access to capital challenges faced by small businesses and to consider the unique needs of minority-owned businesses during Black History Month.

HONORING THE LIFE OF CLIFF GOODIN

HON. BRUCE WESTERMAN

OF ARKANSAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 16, 2024

Mr. WESTERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today with a heavy heart to extend my deepest condolences on the passing of Cliff Goodin, a pillar of the community whose legacy will forever resonate throughout Russellville and the Fourth Congressional District of Arkansas.

Cliff's journey, rooted in the humble beginnings of Bald Knob, Arkansas, was marked by unwavering dedication and an unyielding commitment to service others. From his early days as a beloved son of Duval Grant Goodin and Minnie Collison Goodin, to his steadfast companionship with his college sweetheart Sara Lou Snow, Cliff exemplified the virtues of love, loyalty, and resilience. Their enduring bond, spanning 59 years, stands as a testament to the enduring power of partnership and family.

As a visionary entrepreneur and respected leader, Cliff left an indelible mark on the community through his pioneering efforts in the real estate industry. From his tenure at Vernon Howard Realty to the founding of Cliff Goodin & Associates, Realtors, Cliff's innovative spirit and tireless work ethic propelled the development of countless commercial and residential projects, shaping the landscape of the River Valley for generations to come.

Beyond his professional achievements, Cliff's legacy is defined by his selfless service to others. As a dedicated member of the real estate community, he generously shared his time and expertise, serving in various capacities including President of the Arkansas REALTORS Association and as an ARPAC Trustee. His advocacy and leadership were instrumental in advancing the interests of his colleagues and advocating for policies that promoted economic growth and prosperity.

Cliff's impact extended far beyond the boardroom, as he actively engaged in civic leadership and community service. Whether through his involvement with organizations such as the Russellville Jaycees, Lions Club, or Chamber of Commerce, Cliff demonstrated an unwavering commitment to improving the lives of those around him. His passion for civic engagement and grassroots activism inspired others to follow in his footsteps, leaving an enduring legacy of service and leadership.

As we reflect on Cliff's remarkable life, let us draw inspiration from his boundless generosity, unwavering integrity, and steadfast devotion to his family and community. Though he may no longer walk among us, his spirit will continue to guide and inspire us in the days ahead.

May Sara Lou, Gaye, Julie, and the entire Goodin family, find comfort in the cherished memories they shared with Cliff and solace in the knowledge that his legacy will endure as a beacon of hope and inspiration for generations to come. Let us honor Cliff's memory by rededicating ourselves to the principles of service, compassion, and unity that he held dear. May his legacy continue to shine brightly, illuminating the path forward for the community and beyond.

RECOGNIZING DUDLEY DAVENPORT

HON. WILLIAM R. KEATING

OF MASSACHUSETTS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 16, 2024

Mr. KEATING. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of Dudley Davenport and on the dedication of the gymnasium at Sharon High School in his honor.

Born on December 14, 1937, Dudley Davenport was raised in Westport, Massachusetts, where he found a passion for sports, specifically basketball, at a young age. During Dudley's time at Westport High School, he was a four-year starter on the basketball team and set an all-time scoring record with 1,529 points throughout his high school career. This record held for 50 years and earned Dudley a place in the Westport High School Athletic Hall of Fame. It was also in Westport where Dudley first met the love of his life, Shirley. They began dating Dudley's sophomore year and were married in 1957. Together, Dudley and Shirley raised four children—David, Diane, Tracy, and Jay.

Dudley went on to receive an athletic scholarship to play basketball at the University of Rhode Island and served as team captain. After graduating in 1960, Dudley taught at Roosevelt Junior High School in New Bedford for one year, before accepting a position to teach at Sharon High School. For 35 years, Dudley taught science at Sharon High School and quickly established himself as a pillar of the local community. In 1961, during his first year of teaching in Sharon, Dudley also began coaching the boys' varsity basketball team and continued to do so until 1983. Throughout his two decades as a coach, the team won five Hockomock League Championships and a total of 328 games. The team also qualified for the state tournament 18 times and played in 10 semi-finals and four state finals. With a coaching record of 328–114, Dudley was inducted into the Sharon High School Athletic Hall of Fame as well as the Massachusetts Basketball Coaches' Hall of Fame and was a recipient of the MIAA Sherman A. Kinney Award for outstanding contributions to Massachusetts high school basketball. In addition to his work as a teacher and a coach, Dudley also took on the role of athletic director at Sharon High School in 1969 and held this position for nearly three decades. In 2010, to celebrate Dudley's impact on the Hockomock League and athletics across the region, the league named a division after him—the Davenport Division.

Dudley's contributions to the Sharon community were not limited only to the classroom or basketball court. For over 40 years, Dudley served as a board member on the Sharon Credit Union as well as the Chairman for nearly two decades. Under his leadership, the credit union grew and transformed into the important resource that it is today. As an educator for over 35 years, Dudley understood the importance of access to education and played a critical role in establishing the Sharon Credit Union Scholarship Program, which awards scholarships to graduating seniors who excelled in academics, extracurriculars, and community service.

Sadly, we lost Dudley too soon on May 15, 2019, at the age of 81. Dudley leaves behind a remarkable legacy as a loving father and devoted educator, coach, and mentor to students and colleagues alike. Although Dudley had a significant record as both a coach and player, what people remember most is the positive impact that Dudley had on those around him. On February 16, 2024, the Sharon community will gather together to dedicate the gymnasium at Sharon High School in memory of Dudley Davenport.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to honor Dudley Davenport, my friend who positively impacted the lives of so many who were privileged to know him, and I ask that my colleagues join me in celebrating his lifelong commitment to mentoring and supporting those in his community.

CELEBRATING THE CITY OF MENASHA'S 150TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. GLENN GROTHMAN

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 16, 2024

Mr. GROTHMAN. Mr. Speaker, the first European settlers arrived in present day Menasha in 1835. In 1848, Governor James Doty and Curtis Reed formed the Town of Menasha, naming it after the Winnebago word for "thorn" or "island" and otherwise known in the Menominee language as "little island". In 1849, the navigational channel of the Fox-Wisconsin waterway was placed through the north channel in Menasha, leading to the construction of the Manitowoc and Mississippi Railroad in 1854. The creation of this railroad led to major water and rail transportation routes passing directly through the city. Menasha was officially incorporated as a city in 1874, and was considered to be a transportation hub.

One of the earliest successes of the newly established city was the Menasha Wooden Ware Company which produced wooden tubs and barrels, and eventually made its way to become the world's largest wooden ware products manufacturer. Evolving into the corrugated packaging business, the company changed its name to Menasha Corporation.

By the early 1900's, Menasha earned the moniker "Industrial City," hosting renowned companies such as Menasha Corporation, the George A. Whiting Paper Company Mill, the John Strange Paper Mill, Island Paper Company, the Gilbert Paper Company, and the George Banta Publishing Company. These enterprises reflected a community characterized by ingenuity and the collaborative spirit of its residents, contributing to the city's success through hard work and dedication.

This year, as a Representative of the great state of Wisconsin, I am proud to join in commemorating the city of Menasha in the Sesquicentennial Anniversary of its founding. The celebration on the beautiful Menasha waterfront showcases various events honoring the city's history, culture, character, and quality of life. The celebration aims to engage local residents along with visitors from other communities with associated observance activities in recognizing the city's notable historical achievements along with their ongoing tenacity projecting a future vision of Menasha as Your Place on the Water.

I would like to extend my gratitude and congratulations to the people of Menasha and wish the city 150 more years of prosperity and success.

RESOLUTION CALLING FOR RE- LEASE OF DR. GUBAD IBADOGLU

HON. DAVID ROUZER

OF NORTH CAROLINA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 16, 2024

Mr. ROUZER. Mr. Speaker, I am proud to have introduced a bipartisan resolution to highlight the plight of Dr. Gubad Ibadoghlu, a respected academic and economist who taught and conducted research at several top universities in America, including Duke University and UNC Chapel Hill in my home state of North Carolina.

While on a trip to Azerbaijan to visit his sick mother back in July of 2023, he and his wife were brutally assaulted by Azerbaijani authorities, and he was arrested on politically motivated, baseless charges. To this day, he continues to be detained and cruelly denied access to regular legal counsel and critical medications. This abuse is wrong and life-threatening.

What Dr. Ibadoghlu is currently experiencing is a sobering reminder of what can and does happen in nations that have no regard for human rights with a history of jailing individuals on baseless charges. With this resolution, we join the State Department and many members of international civil society in calling for his unconditional release.

HONORING THE 150TH ANNIVER- SARY OF THE WASHINGTON AS- SOCIATION OF NEW JERSEY

HON. MIKIE SHERRILL

OF NEW JERSEY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, February 16, 2024

Ms. SHERRILL. Mr. Speaker, I rise to recognize the 150th anniversary of the Washington Association of New Jersey based in New Jersey's Eleventh Congressional District, and their longstanding commitment to preserving our nation's early history.

During the harshest winter of the Revolutionary War from 1779 to 1780, Jacob Ford Jr.'s mansion in Morristown, New Jersey served as the military headquarters for George Washington as the Continental Army encamped nearby. Recognizing the importance of this site, the Washington Association of New Jersey was founded on March 30, 1874 with the goal of preserving and maintaining the Ford Mansion.

In 1933, the Washington Association was instrumental in advocating for the establishment of our country's first National Historical Park, as they shared the important history of the Ford Mansion, Jockey Hollow, and Fort Mifflin with the 65th Congress. I am grateful to the Washington Association for its dedication to preserving this important history for both the State of New Jersey and the United States.

Today, visitors can appreciate the beauty and historical importance of Washington's Headquarters and the Morristown Historical Park thanks to the efforts and foresight of the Washington Association of New Jersey. New Jersey is the Crossroads of the American Revolution and I especially look forward to welcoming people from all over America and the world to these sites in 2026 as we celebrate the 250th anniversary of our nation.

For the past 150 years, the Washington Association has shared New Jersey's Revolutionary War history with all of us and that is why I am honored to recognize them on this important anniversary.

HONORING DR. JASPER LEWIS

HON. GREGORY F. MURPHYOF NORTH CAROLINA
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES*Friday, February 16, 2024*

Mr. MURPHY. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor Dr. Jasper L. Lewis of Greenville for his remarkable contributions to dentistry and his community, state, and Nation. Dr. Lewis graduated from Wake Forest University and received his doctorate in dental surgery from the University of North Carolina. From the beginning of his professional career, Dr. Lewis was committed to using his talents and expertise for the betterment of others. After receiving his degrees, Dr. Lewis decided to join the Air Force as a dental officer.

Dr. Lewis returned home to Greenville and founded his own practice, Eastern Orthodontics & Pediatrics. He has earned the reputation of an esteemed leader in his field, serving as President of the American Academy of Pediatric Dentistry and Vice President of the North Carolina Dental Society. He is also credited as a significant contributor to the founding of the Eastern Carolina University School of Dental Medicine and has a professorship named in his honor.

Dr. Lewis has a big heart for the children of Eastern North Carolina affected by oral healthcare disparities. He helped bring the American Dental Association's "Give Kids a Smile", a nationwide program providing free dental services to uninsured children, to Eastern North Carolina. As all can see, Dr. Lewis's charity and influence touched many lives. Dr.

Lewis was recently recognized by the Greenville-Pitt County Chamber of Commerce and became one of only ten recipients to receive the Legends Award.

Mr. Speaker, please join me in extending this chamber's recognition of this remarkable servant leader.

HONORING THE LIFE OF GILDA
RAMIREZ*HON. SYLVIA R. GARCIAOF TEXAS
IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES*Friday, February 16, 2024*

Ms. GARCIA of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the life of Magnolia Park's own Gilda Ramirez.

Gilda was born on February 12, 1963, in the shadow of Port Houston, a place that would come to define her life, and where some of her fondest memories were born, like hunting for Easter eggs in Mason Park.

She knew at a young age that the door of opportunity to the halls of power had been cracked open for her generation, but it was up to her to open that door all the way and hold it open for the community.

Gilda, ever-curious, took what she learned at Stephen F. Austin High School and Houston International University and embarked on a history-making career as an executive at Houston's Metropolitan Transit Authority and the Port of Houston, a place she loved dearly. She was amazed at all the different things that came through the Port and all the jobs and families it helped.

She said she could never live far away from Magnolia Park. She kept coming back. She found joy in connecting people, fostering friendships, and serving the community that had given her so much.

Through it all, Gilda never forgot those who would follow. She stayed committed to mentoring future professionals and supporting and empowering small, minority and women-owned businesses, and keeping that door open.

Mr. Speaker, Gilda swung the door wide open, and she held it there through her final days. Because of her work, Latina women have a seat at the table, our future leaders have a seat at the table, our community has a seat at the table.

Gilda won countless honors, from "Hispanic Executive of the Year" by the Houston Hispanic Chamber of Commerce to "The One Woman Soaring Heights Award" by the Texas Business Alliance, but it is especially sweet to honor the life of my friend in the Congress of the United States.

Our prayers are with her husband, Richard Arevalo, her sister, Rebecca Peña, and her lovely and sharp girls, Coco and Lola.

May God bless Gilda. I thank her for everything she did for us while she was with us here. May she please keep watch over us as we continue the fight for greater inclusion and shared prosperity for all.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring the life and legacy of Gilda Ramirez.
